College Rules and Regulations

JAIN (Deemed-to-be University) – General Guidelines for Students

Introduction

Students of JAIN (Deemed-to-be University) are expected to maintain discipline and follow the rules and regulations of the institution. These rules help maintain a professional academic environment and ensure smooth functioning of the university.

Attendance Rules

- Students must maintain a minimum of 75% attendance in each subject.
- Students who do not meet the minimum attendance requirement may not be allowed to appear for internal or semester examinations.
- Attendance will be monitored regularly by the faculty and administration.

Discipline and Behaviour

- Students must behave respectfully towards faculty members, staff, and fellow students.
- Any form of misconduct, ragging, or harassment is strictly prohibited.
- Students should maintain discipline inside classrooms, laboratories, and campus premises.

Use of Electronic Devices

- Mobile phones must be kept on silent mode during lectures.
- Use of mobile phones during examinations is strictly prohibited.
- Unauthorized use of electronic devices for academic misconduct will result in disciplinary action.

Dress Code

- Students should follow a decent and professional dress code within the campus.
- Any inappropriate dressing that affects the academic environment is not permitted.

Library Rules

- Students must maintain silence inside the library.
- Books borrowed from the library must be returned on or before the due date.
- Damage or loss of library books may result in penalty or replacement charges.

Campus Cleanliness

- Students must help maintain cleanliness and hygiene on campus.
- Littering within the campus is strictly prohibited.

Anti-Ragging Policy

- The university follows a strict anti-ragging policy.
- Any student involved in ragging will face strict disciplinary action as per university and government rules.